REMARKS

50X1-HUM

1. Neubrandenburg-Trollenhagen airfield was observed for six hours on 30 July 1951. There was no flying although the weather was good. Two MiG-15s were parked on the eastern end of the runway. 50X1-HUM

* Comment. The two MiG-15s are probably the alert flight. It is believed that the other aircraft of the fighter regiment stationed at Neubrandenburg airfield were parked in the hangars on the day of observation. There are no indications that the fighter regiment is no longer stationed at Neubrandenburg airfield.
